- I'm trying to work and all I can think about is how bad I want your dick right now.
- I just want to bend over in front of you when we get home. So you can get so deep and fuck me hard.
- Is your cock hard right now? I can't stop thinking about it.
- This never happened to me. I am getting wet just by imagining your big bulge growing below your pants.
- I had to change my panties at work today. I got extra wet by thinking about you.
- I know what you want. And I will make you beg for it.
- When you got out of the shower earlier, I couldn't decide if I wanted to suck you or fuck you more.
- I can't stop thinking about how fucking bad I want you.
- I touched myself thinking about you last night.
- My big cleavage is craving for your cock today. And no. I won't send a pic.
- I can't stop thinking about your ass in those tight boxers you were wearing this morning.
- I can feel your masculine power when I touch you down there. It's really hot, heavy and hard like a rod.
- I want to make you cum with my tits.

WHY THESE DIRTY THINGS TO SAY TO YOUR BOYFRIEND WORKS?

When a man takes a little blue pill, he has no control over his erection (It will happen whether he tries to have one or not).

Using sexually explicit texts in a situation where you can't act on them works in a similar way.

Are you someone (or do you know someone) who is prone to laugh at the worst time, like say, at a funeral?

You know you aren't supposed to laugh during a such somber occasion, and the very fact that you shouldn't spurs on a fit of uncontrollable giggles.

This is the same idea.

You are both in a real life situation where you can't just strip naked and go at it.

But you are teasing him with very direct sexual comments.

His erection almost becomes involuntary at this point.

The more he tries to contain the erection, the harder (haha) it becomes.

As if he'd taken a little blue pill. . . but instead your dirty texts are the blue pill.

Remember to make this work you don't need a lot of advance preparation.

The only key ingredient is to be aware of the right situation.

Really, it's THAT simple.
